“ Growing up, Helen was the sister I never had. Ray and Corkie always treated me as part of their family and are still very special to me. Although Helen and I grew up and went our separate ways, she always wanted to know about my family. I still have the bear she gave my firstborn and remember the excitement she shared with me when she met my grandkids for the first time. From my family to the Klug and Scurlock family, never forget the precious moments that she shared with you, I never will. With all my love, Karen (Schirmer) Duncan
