“ I didn't know Mr. Evans very well but would often see him walking around the neighborhood with his pups. I'd always smile and wave as did he. One day I came upon him walking his little pup and two other dogs had gotten loose and we're trying to play with his dog. They were sweet but were jumping and I was concerned so I stopped my car to help. He knew exactly where they lived and I was able to return them to their yard. Henry was so kind and thanked me and told me to stay young and beautiful. He always made me smile and I've definitely missed his presence and the kindness and joy he shared on a daily basis with everyone he interacted with. He was an inspiration and proof that even the smallest kindnesses impact so many. I'm so sorry for your loss and will keep his family in my thoughts.

“ Henry was amazing person and we will always have fond memories of driving through the neighborhood looking forward to seeing Henry walking with his beloved dog(s). We would always stop to say hello and chat with him and he always made us feel better because of his happy and cheerful attitude despite all his ailments and surgeries he always had a positive outlook. We miss him but we know that he is with the Lord cheering everybody up there as well.

“ Dale and I were very sadden to hear of Henry's death. We thought the world of Henry. He had too many admirable qualities to list. His kindness, generosity and sense of humor are just to name a few. Henry was a shining example of civility in a world where this quality seems lost. An imprinted memory is seeing Henry drive by our house each day at 4:00 in the PT Cruiser with Sage's smiling face looking out the driver's side window. We count ourselves very fortunate to have Henry as our friend. We will never forget him and will miss him very much.

“ Not long after moving to the neighborhood, I was out walking my two dogs one day when out of nowhere it started to rain. Henry saw us as we were all hustling back towards home and insisted we all come in their home and dry off. We sat in their living room and talked for quite some time. The rain continued. Henry then insisted that he drive us back home so we wouldn't get wet again. I absolutely adored Henry Evans and will remember him as one of the nicest people I've ever known.

“ Henry was an amazing neighbor and motivated all of us. Always had kind words for all the people he knew. He would have surgery in the morning and he would be walking in the afternoon. I miss him and will keep him in my thoughts and prayers. Looking forward to seeing him in the High Ground !
