“ Since as far back as I can remember, every time I'd see my Tio Henry, he'd sing "Bonnie Bonnie foo foo hopping through the forest". I will always remember him for making me laugh ♡

“ My greatest memories will forever be you taking me to the coast when 7yrs old w/tia and the three of us just star gazing while resting on top of that beautiful camaro and the best bbq's along with the most competitive volleyball matches against Everyone! Tias, Tios and Primos!! Your missed more than words can ever express! We love you so much Tio may you rest in Peace.

XOXO your lil ratita

I will remember you for all the mischiefs you got into with me as your alibi. I know you were always a Cowboys fan, though they let you down in that big game! Your later years were bad for me because of your hearing. I couldn't see you listening to your favorite Tejano music. Love you Henry.

“ A bottle of Don Julio añejo, a box of cigars, good food and great conversations is what I will remember of my Uncle Henry. Always talking trash but with a smile. Thank you for being a true Nieto and showing us “youngsters” how to be a little better. You will always be a G! Love you
