“ My dear friend, Henry Ortega was a kind and generous man. In 1967, in my move to Watertown, MA., Henry and Sylvia, took me and my family at the time, into their home for two weeks. Later, Martin and Ortega employment in 1973-74. Since those early years, we have maintained a close friendship, and in 2012, culminating with bi-weekly breakfast meetings with fellow San Antonio Aggie Architects (Aggie Vatos). At these breakfast socials, Henry's interest in Texas History, related to early Mexican-American experiences, became our reading material as well. I will thank him forever for that. Adios, my good friend.

“ Henry was a great Aggie Buddy!! And a super architect!! We shared many hours in the pre-covid years joining with other Aggie Buddies of the Class of '62 in the SA area, and remembering our days in Aggieland. We told each other about our careers and our families, and our love for Texas A & M. I learned more about Henry's love for his family and his beloved San Antonio. We consumed classic mexican food, and planned reunions and other future gatherings. We sized up various Aggie sporting events, especially the football and baseball teams. It is sad that covid broke that connection with me and Henry for the last two years. I would have liked to talk to him more and understand more about his gentle and thoughtful approach to life. Best regards to Henry's family. Grace and peace.

“ Henry, I am so grateful that God gave me the gift of your friendship throughout these years. You touched so many hearts with your kindness and with your enthusiasm on every opportunity you had to share it with the world. I learned so much from your passion and love for architecture as your mentee, but most importantly your love for Sylvia, your family, and your friends. When I think of you there’s always a smile on your face, and words of wisdom that keep inspiring me every day. You helped me believe in my dreams and to maintain an adventurous heart always as the key to living a life full of great experiences like you did. Thank you for all the beautiful memories. I know deep in my heart that we’ll meet again and have more of our charlas, and share some good laughs. Sary and I will never forget you, Henry. May God bless you.

“ Henry always made you feel like you were the only person in the room. He always had a smile on his face and a kind word to say! As the proud mother and mother-in-law of Aggies, Henry and I always spoke about our love for Texas A&M! I saw his love for Sylvia each time we all were together! He was kind, attentive, and loving towards her. I can't even imagine the loss his family must be feeling, I was only a friend, and I am heartbroken. Sylvia and family, I pray that your memories will bring you some comfort during this very difficult time. Jaye Ross

“ What a stand up guy! Very generous of spirit, accepting of all God's people. Henry's whole face smiled when he greeted you, always making sure to look straight into your eyes with warmth. Such an extinguished fine man, who represented the best of humanity. One class act you were Mr. Ortega! You will be missed. Courtney Cody

“ Henry will be greatly missed by his Aggie Vatos classmates that met every couple of weeks for breakfast. Henry was the most admired member of our group due to his humor, wit, intelligence and overall knowledge. Henry possessed everything that anyone would want in a true friend, warmth, compassion, understanding and someone you could always depend upon. Henry was a very talented architect and had a charismatic personality and was someone with whom you always enjoyed being in his presence. Henry, I wish we could have one more occasion when we could share a final abrazo. Farewell, dear friend.

“ Brother, I miss you already. Thanks for the wonderful memories of our growing up together. Our fun times will always be remembered. The picnics we had at Guadalupe River were the best. Dad and Mom were always so proud of you being an Aggie. Needless to say I will always cherish that memory. That's why tears come to my eyes when I hear the Aggie Band play. All of your Carvajal family and cousins admired the wonderful gentleman you were. Thank you for always encouraging me and loving me. You were truly a good, caring, and loving brother.

Love,
Louis and Sylvia
