

Herald Frank Smith

November 25, 2021

Herald Frank Smith went to be with the Lord at the Great Thanksgiving Feast in Heaven on Thanksgiving morning, November 25, 2021, at the age of 80. Herald was a native of Nebraska. He was born and raised in Nemaha. He joined the Air Force and did basic training at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. He was then stationed at several places before returning to San Antonio and Brooks Air Force, where he met the love of his life, Sylvia Smith, and they were married 58 years.

Herald worked for VIA Metropolitan Transit and retired in 2006 after 35+ years of service.

Herald enjoyed wood-working and watching college football on Saturdays with his little buddy, Toby, and spending time with his family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Margaret and Elmer (Jack) Smith, and brothers, Edward and Donald Smith. Herald is survived by his wife, Sylvia, and his children, Joe (Bonnie), David (Brandi), Margaret (Derly), and by his grandchildren, Caleb, Madison and Isabella, and his sister, Barbara Edmonds (Rock Port, MO) and many nieces and nephews.

“ Dad you always spoke your mind, usually unfiltered. But that's what made ya who you were and we loved ya for who ya were. You taught us us good work ethics. Strong discipline. You brought us up the best you knew how and we came out pretty darn good. We will always love you and miss you more than you could have ever imagined. Love ya Pop.
