“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Mrs Herlinda Balli, however I do know two of her sons. They both are very family oriented gentlemen and great citizens. I'm proud to know them both, and I can surely attribute their great character to have come from being raised in such a comforting and loving family. Mr and Mrs Balli should be proud in the legacy they leave behind. Rest in Peace.

“ Titus 2:3-5 3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things,
4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,
5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.
This is who Sis Linda Balli was to me. I was always in awe of her love for her husband, how she beamed with pride when she spoke of her children and grandchildren and how she loved her Lord and Savior. Though a quiet woman, she lived a life with such grace and kindness and dignity that she spoke volumes to me. I am blessed by the influence she had on my life. My condolences and prayers to her beautiful family who I am sure will honor her legacy to the fullest.
