Herman J. Brownrigg

February 19, 1925 - December 3, 2016

Herman J. Brownrigg, went to be with our Lord Jesus Christ on December 3, 2016 at the age of 91. Herman was a United States Navy Veteran serving our Country during WWII, on the USS Kenmore. He was employed by Lone Star Brewery for 40 years. He was an avid hunter and a superb marksman. He will be missed by all.

Herman is survived by his wife of 68 years, Maydell Brownrigg, a brother, Charles R. Brownrigg, and numerous nieces, great-nieces, great-nephews.

A viewing will begin on Thursday, December 8, 2016 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Chapel services will be held on Friday, December 9, 2016 at 1:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South.

For personal acknowledgement, you may sign the online guestbook at www.missionparks.com in the obituary section.

“ Herman Brownrigg was a very special man to our family. His wife is my second cousin and I spent many hours visiting with him and Maydell at their home in San Antonio and at my parents home in Beeville. He was always a great host and interesting man to talk to. Even when I was a child, he always made me feel special and talked to me. He and Maydell always came to the SA shooting range to watch my son as he shot skeet at the state 4H tournament. We will miss him more than words can say, but I thank God for relieving him of his earthly illness. Till we meet again Herman....you are loved and never forgotten.

“ Mr. Brownrigg was such a kind person to our family. He and his loving wife lived next door to us when we lived in San Antonio on Zerrcliff Lane. Through the years we have thought and talked about them with loving and kind stories. He will be missed, but he is with our Lord now.
