“ My best memories of my Aunt is that yes she was always very welcoming in offering you her home to stay if you needed it, but also just the little things she did to make you feel special, like sending you a card just out of the blue to say Happy Easter or Happy Birthday and including a Lottery Ticket to try your Luck, Those are the little gestures from her that I will miss but I am thankful for her.

“ My Tia Mine was a strong lady with a big personality. Her laugh was contagious. She always welcomed me with open arms when I visited her on my way to the Valley. Going to H.E.B getting Pan Dulce to share. I will miss her dearly. May the Good Lord bless, protect and give my cousins the strength through this difficult times. My deepest condolences.
