“ Our deepest sympathies go out to the Hilario Chavers family. May God give you the peace that you seek. Be comforted by the words of Revelation: 21:4, "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

Love always, Ian and Yvette Smith

“ *Eladio was the best neighbor and friend to us who was more like family. I have never met such an amazing man like him. He was so kind with such a big heart. I looked up to him because of his strong faith and how he was such a great Family man. Every Halloween he would dress as Moink and play his character so well. He would decorate his house so spooky. He always kept in touch even after we moved. There are so many good memories to share. We miss you ❤️ until we meet again. Our deepest condolences to the Chavers Family. You all are in our prayers. “ We offer our prayerful condolences to Arnita; children: Nikki, Seneca, Cristina, Aviano and Sergio; grandchildren, siblings and their families. Hilario was the sibling born before me. I cherish memories of our childhood exploits, the brotherly love and humor that has been active all of these years. Hilario was a gifted artist and musician. He was a wonderful brother in law and friend. Our family has beautiful memories of his witty interactions and are grateful for his God fearing influence in our lives.

“ I grew up watching him impersonate people on TV like Jimmy Steward, Don Knotts and Walter Brennan. It was hilarious watching him because he was so great at doing their voices, faces and body language.

As a teenager, whenever he was home, I would always request him to do them...and he would because he loved to laugh and make others laugh.

When I was about 12 years old, he taught me how to call squirrels to eat out of my hand; something I still do today that has fascinated on-lookers (smile). And the music he wrote was always unique and from his heart, especially the ones about Father God. He loved the Lord so much! Saying I miss him is a HUGE understatement. There just aren't any words. My only comfort is knowing that we will one day serve God in eternity together.

I LOVE YOU IMMENSELY Hilario!! ❤️👨👩👦

“ Hilario and I were neighbors. We spent a great deal of time discussing his unique art work. We had a common love for music; he loved to sing. He and I would share our musical talents often, he would sing and I played the drums with backup music. This common love for music and art made a solid bond between us. I will miss my friend dearly but will never forget him.
