

Hilda Romo Arevalos

May 12, 1929 - September 23, 2015

Hilda Romo Arevalos went to be with the Lord on September 23, 2015. Born May 12, 1929 in San Antonio. A Brackenridge High School graduate, she grew up with a deep appreciation for family and a belief in herself that led her to be at once a tomboy, climbing trees and riding horses, and a lady of fashion and culture, "dressed to the nines" for frequent attendance at theatrical and cultural events. After losing her husband Henry in 1990, Hilda closed the family owned Eastwood Pharmacy and focused on creative endeavors and enjoying her grandchildren. Her favorite places to attend include the Esperanza Peace and Justice Center, La Casita, and the Majestic Theater. Hilda is survived by her children Mona Arevalos, Enrique Arevalos, and Laura Medellin; grandchildren Jason, Robert, and Alison Rex, Zachary and Jessica Medellin, Erica de la Rosa, Michelle Meadows, and Krista Wilson; eight great-grandchildren and one great-great granddaughter. She leaves behind her brother Dr. Thomas Romo, numerous nephews, nieces, her caretaker and friend Eusebia Gomez, her beloved dog, Sister, and many friends. We wish her a peaceful journey to join her mother and husband in heaven where she can cook and garden without any pain. We love you.
