

Hilda F. Johnson

January 10, 1934 - August 28, 2006

Hilda Johnson, of San Antonio, passed away August 28, 2006 at the age of 72. Mrs. Johnson was born and raised in Hungary where she was educated as a registered nurse. In 1965, she fled from Hungary to Italy, eventually arriving in the U.S. in 1966. A proud day in Hilda's life came May 1, 1972, when she became a U.S. citizen. She worked at Methodist Hospital in Houston for 7 years, at Ft. Sam Houston selling flowers and also at Joske's Department Store in the floral department. In 1985, she opened DeZavala Florist and ran the shop until retiring in 1995. Hilda Johnson is survived by her husband of 38 years, Cole Johnson.
