

Hildegarde Anna Millican

May 1, 1914 - January 7, 2010

MILLICAN

Hildegarde Anna Millican passed away January 7, 2010. She was born May 1, 1914 to Carl and Anna Jaehn in Ft. Wayne, Indiana. She lived there until 1943 when she enlisted in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corp. She was one of the first WAC's assigned to Kelly Field and proudly served until being honorably discharged when WW II was over. Hildegarde was a loving mother, wife, grandmother, aunt and friend and lived her life being thankful for all that she had. She will be greatly missed by many. She was preceded in death by her husband, Shackelford, and her two sons, Richard S. Millican and Thomas C. Millican. She is survived by her daughter, Sue Millican and her grandson and his wife, Jonathan and Blaise Millican.

“ I never met Great Aunt Hilde, but I have many photographs copies of her in her youth with my grandmother Gertrude, and have always enjoyed seeing them happy together as young girls and teenagers, and knowing that she was part of my family. Hopefully she i
