

Hope Violet Guzman

April 12, 1999 - November 2, 2018

Hope Violet Guzman was born on April 12, 1999 and went to be with our Lord on November 2, 2018. She was born in San Antonio, TX. Hope's legacy continues with her husband Rafael Ethan Guzman and son Benjamin Joel Guzman, parents Francisco Galaviz III and Flor Violeta Ornelas and siblings Bernard Vernon Neve III, Courtney Neve and Ellie Viviana Ornelas and grandparents Francisco Galaviz II, Paula Galaviz, Florentino Ortiz Mendoza and Dolores Maria Martinez. She was a devoted wife and mother. Hope had a bubbly and spontaneous personality "the life of the party"! She loved family gatherings and enjoyed spending time at her favorite places "The Ranch" and "The Beach". Her favorite foods were home cooked meals, seafood and she appreciated Japanese culture. Hope loved animals, fishing and camping. She had a passion for makeup, although she didn't use much herself and spent her relaxation time outdoors, writing poetry, reading, watching movies with her family. She will be deeply missed, and her life will continue to be celebrated by all who loved her.

“ Today, I went through a childhood memory box and found a series of movie picture booth photos of hope and I. We must have been around 10 or 11 years old. I had meet hope in elementary school and we were instant best friends as we grew into middle school. I wanted to reconnect and sadly found her obituary. I want to send my condolences to her family, even after years of her at rest, I know it's hard. I wanted to say a few kind words for the hope I knew as a little girl. She was so sweet and kind , I always thought she was just so cool and gorgeous. She was everyone's friend. This truly breaks my heart that she has passed. Hope was such a light and so beautiful. May her family rest with the idea that hope was so admired and now she is angel like she was down on earth. I will keep you in my heart hope <3

“ I went to Highschool with Hope at Karen Wagner. I was just moving to San Antonio from SouthCarolina and I had classes with Hope my 10th grade year we sat beside each other in most of the classes and she was so down to earth and a beautiful soul I can remember it like yesterday she used to always say “Hope is Dope” lol I only stayed in San Antonio for a couple months until I moved back home but todays and just today found out about her passing my heart is in disbelief such a beautiful soul and person may you get your rest Hope “ Hopie was wise way beyond her years. She did things as a teenager that almost all adultier adults struggle with. She was sooo strong. She was such an amazing mother. She learned to love hard and thoroughly from her amazing parents. Her love story with Ethan is one fit for sonnets and literature. She was a young lady I was blessed to watch turn into an amazing and inspiring young woman. She was stronger than oak. Yet still, tender and kind. She had a giggle that reminded me of wind chimes. There was never any petense with Hope. She was kind and honest. She could look at you and you felt peace, love and understanding. She was unbending in her beliefs like her dad and glitter and sunshine like her beautiful mother. She was amazing. I was so blessed to have been given the gift of her time.

“ I knew hope in high school, when she was at Wagner. Amazing personality and we hit it off . So many funny conversations, deep conversations, but she was a very good friend at the end of the day. I'm so sorry i didn't keep in contact with you these couple of months . May you rest east Hope, and my deepest condolences to the family 💔

“ I'm going to miss Hopie my ("gatita she had grandma's beautiful hands and nails)" my little cousin. Hopie was always a great listener! She was laid back and super cool! She had a flair for style and makeup and she always managed to look beautiful without even trying! What Im going to miss most is the beautiful smile that reached her beautiful eyes! She had a heart of gold and she was a rare beauty inside n out! I love you mamas...May you rest in God's precious Glory and eternal peace. 💕💕
