

Hubbard Thompson, SMSgt., USAF Ret.

January 17, 1924 - September 18, 2018

Hubbard Thompson

17 January 1924 to 18 September 2018

United States Air Force Senior Master Sergeant (SMSGT) retired. Hubbard's military career spanned nearly 30 years combined Honorable service in the United States Navy and United States Air Force. Hubbard served in the World War II, Korean Peninsula and Viet Nam campaigns. His steadfast devotion to God, country, and family inspired him to help as many people as he could by serving in the medical field while in the military and later in the private sector. He was heartbroken in April 2017 when Wanda his beautiful wife of 66 years went to heaven. He is survived by his daughter Elaine Fallin and son Richard Thompson, five granddaughters, three great granddaughters and one great grandson. Hubbard is gone, he will not be forgotten.

*Elaine...so sorry to hear of your dad's passing. I remember what characters your parents were and know they are together again carrying on the tradition. It is truly a blessing that many memories will carry you through and comfort you.
Take care my friend*
