IDA "BONNIE" ESQUEDA GARCIA

Saying goodbye to our loved ones is always difficult and when an individual is as amazing and genuine as Ida "Bonnie" Esqueda Garcia was, it seems impossible, surreal, but in the morning hours of January 1, 2021, we had to do just that. She was born on August 17, 1937 to Genaro Esqueda and Febe Gonzalez. She was our Mama, our Nana, our sister, our Tia, our cousin, our friend and for over 64 years, she was a loving wife to Jesse. Above all that, she was and forever will be a child of God. She was a true beauty, inside and out, and heaven has gained a glorious soul filled with grace and class. We will see her again, "si Dios quiere, Pajarito".

Ida was preceded in death by her brother, Ruben Esqueda and her granddaughter, Kylie Colavecchia.

She is survived by her husband Feliciano J. "Jesse" Garcia; daughters, Cynthia Evers (Jason), Marét Smith (Rusty), Vanessa Major (George); sister, Yolanda Smith (William); brother, Rene Esqueda (Norma); sister-in-law, Carmen Esqueda; grandchildren, Karissa Smith, Jesse Gamble, Lauren Smith Richmond (Sean), Rachel Lynne Gamble, Rebecca Major; grandson-in-law, Paul Colavecchia; great-grandsons, Wesley Anders, Zachary Anders; and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ Bonnie was my beloved sister, and my favorite partner in mischief. That mischievousness never faded. Her joy and jovial nature radiated from her ever-present smile to her sparkling eyes. She loved to laugh, she loved to care for her family, she loved God, and she loved life. She also loved to pull my chest hairs when I was in trouble with her. Which is fitting. Her choice of playful torment near my heart will always remind me of how she's in it forever. ”
