

Ida Bernice Kendrick

October 2, 1936 - December 29, 2012

Kendrick

Born to Stuart Alonzo and Ida Bolieu Bergman on October 2, 1936, in San Antonio, TX, Ida Bernice Kendrick left this world December 29, 2012. Bernice wed Robert Roy Kendrick May 1, 1958, and celebrated their 50th anniversary in 2008 surrounded by family and friends. Preceded in death by her parents and brother Stuart Alonzo Bergman, Jr., she is survived by husband Robert, the mother who raised her when Bernice lost her own mother in 1941, Grace Bergman, brother Fred Bergman and wife Sharon, daughters Kimberly Gunther and husband John, Kerrin Meyer and husband Greg, and son Kirk Kendrick and wife Rhonda, grandchildren Grace, Johanna, Cora, Kory, Sheri, Chelsi, and Alexis, great grandchildren, Hailey, Justin and Darryn, numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews. Blessed with many wonderful friends, from church, school, neighbors, and work, she inspired others, led an exemplary life, and loved unconditionally. Bernice spent a lifetime in service to God and worked on ministries to the poor and incarcerated. She served regularly in various hospitality ministries at Oak Hills Church since 1999. Bernice graduated in 1954 from San Antonio's Edison High School and remained very involved with her high school reunion committee, participating in a reunion earlier this year. In her early career, she worked for the Texas Railroad Commission, and later at the Milam Building downtown. She took time off from work for years to spend time with her young children. Later she returned to work and retired from USAA. She was beloved by her family and devoted countless hours to her children's and grandchildren's activities, family reunions, and family celebrations. Visitation will be Friday, January 4, 2013 from 4pm until 9pm at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. Memorial Service will be Saturday, January 5, 2013 at 1pm at Oak Hills Church. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Arms of Hope, 21300 Hwy 16 North, Medina, TX 78055.
