

Ida Mae Lane

December 24, 1926 - July 25, 2017

Ida Mae Lane passed peacefully surrounded by family on July 25, 2017 in San Antonio, Texas. She was born in Mart, Texas on December 24, 1926. She lived in the Dallas area during her childhood but spent the majority of her life in San Antonio, Texas. She was a proud single mother of two daughters and had a career in banking for over 20 years. She married the love of her life, Jessie Thomas Lane in 1974. After she retired she and Tom could be found traveling across the country in their R.V., dancing at the Roaring Twenties or square-dancing with the Shriners. She was devoted to her family and friends as well as being a devoted shopper! She believed every day was a gift and she never wasted a second of her life. After Tom's passing she started working again up until she was 83 years old simply because she had to stay busy.

She is survived by her two daughters Judy Rakestraw and Deborah Smith, her sons-in-law Lee Rakestraw and Ralph Smith, her grandchildren Amber Garansuay, Zachary Smith, Katie Toth, Austin Rakestraw, great-grandchildren Maeson Garansuay, Beckett Garansuay and Theodore Toth and brother Ed Vance and his two daughters Tony Akers and Cynthia Hablinski. She was preceded in death by her husband Tom Lane and brother David Vance. She will forever be remembered and missed.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Christus Santa Rosa Hospice, the American Cancer Society, or another charity of your choice.

I'm so sorry for the loss of your beautiful mother. I remember fondly the time we spent with her and Tom, visiting, dancing and time at Camp Alzafar. She was a wonderful lady.

What a gorgeous woman in both body and soul. She was always so positive. I admired that most about her.
