“ Rest in peace Nacho, you are with your love Gloria. Our condolences to the family. If there, is one thing we knew about Nacho the love he had for his family. He also took pride in the Marine Corps Veterans Commette & Honor Guard. During fiesta, the MCVC had our meetings we all worked those days during fiesta. No one helped us from the members just us. But he hated when the members complained. Now you are in internal life, we will all meet up again, and we will have one big reiou. Till we met up again brother, Sempre Fi USMC.

My sincere condolences to family and all our friends that shared life together --- I will never forget our memories in those frolicking great times with the Honor Guard, we were close friends, you showed me as my "Indian Guide" the love for what we did and respect to all our fellow Veterans.
