Ima Jean was born in Sulphur Springs, TX on February 19, 1926. She was deaf and at the age of 14 she and her little sister, Betty (also deaf) were put on a bus and then transferred to a train to go to the Texas School for the Deaf in Austin. They were alone and scared, wearing a string around their necks with their names and information as to where they were going. There was where she met the love of her life, Winston Martin (also deaf) and their love story began! They were married 42 wonderful years before Jesus called her beloved home.

She was such a beautiful person who had the sweetest laughter. She loved everyone she met and always had a smile on her face and a hug for you! Her family meant the world to her and there was love enough, 'and more' to go around! Her children always teased her that they were her 'favorite' and she would say, 'no, I love all the same'!

Her hobbies were sewing and needlepoint. She loved to play dominoes, spoons, bingo, read the newspaper and of course her gossip magazines!

Our lives are forever Blessed because of her love. She will be missed dearly.

The family is grateful for the loving care from the staff at Wellmed/Greenway Park for the many years of care, as well as her sweet nurse, Sandi Gray with Heart to Heart Hospice.

“ Aunt Ima Jean was someone I looked up to growing up. Daddy always said I looked like her. So did Granny! Love you guys...wish I could have come down, but I have been battling a serious sinus infection and wouldn't have done well traveling. Hope I get some addresses...my home address is 2516 Holmes Road, Marshall, TX 75672. Your mom was one of a kind!

“ Ima was one of first person who welcomed me warmly to San Antonio when I moved. She always had hugs ready and smile on her face. I will miss her. But I know she is in a better place.

“ My face breaks into a wide grin when I think of a Highlands High School football game many years ago in which Ryan Taylor was playing. Ima Jean was sitting a row or so away from me, and she turned around and said "you yell?". I did indeed yell for Ryan - so loudly that sweet Ima Jean heard me.

Each time I would visit my friends Barb and Donna, Ima Jean was there with a gorgeous smile which will be sorely missed. I know, however, that her smile is from ear to ear now that she is with her Lord and Savior.

Blessings to the family.
