“ My Aunt Annie was fearless! She knew how run a Restaurant and serve the customer’s herself with a personable touch. Her daughter’s were always well behaved and dressed up with a ribbon in their freshly curled hair. Her son was like “ Dennis the Menace”, always mischievous running after me and my little sister Theresa with a BB gun. Anthony was her favorite and she always laughed about his mischievousness! He got a chuckle from his mother’s tender hearted scoldings! When I talked on the phone with her she was always understanding and she would let me know that I needed to be strong woman. She and my mother were pretty fierce. When Anthony and I were about 9 Yrs old our Mom’s Aunt Annie and my mom, her younger sister, Carrie drove us from Texas all the way to California. In a huge early 60’s steel Cadillac. They did not bring their husbands along. They were fearless! In those days two beautiful women driving alone with no cell phones, NO GPS! Not sure where the next gas station would be? They never acted scarred they had Faith that this journey was an important one. We were going to make it on time for my Aunt Hilda’s daughter’s wedding day. Elizabeth’s Wedding day! I felt sorry for them after we got there because they found out after the long journey from Texas that children were not allowed at the Wedding Reception! They felt embarrassed!

I remember Aunt Annie & my Mom in tears! I just wanted to hide under a table for them to save face! Aunt Annie was known as fearless but I saw her tears sometimes and she too had real feelings! Rest in Heavenly Peace my Aunt Annie 🙏👤♀️🌹🕊️
