

Ira Jean Eastland

February 28, 1934 - May 7, 2005

Eastland Ira J. "Jean" Boyd Eastland, 71, beloved wife of James G. Eastland, died Saturday evening at Salem Hospital following complications due to cancer. Ira Jean, known as Jean to her family and friends, was born in Hale Center, TX. She was the daughter of the late Ira and Annie Keeling Boyd. She lived there for many years, and attended schools there. She graduated from Harlandale High School. She lived in a few cities before settling in Peabody in 1963, living here for the last 42 years. Mrs. Eastland was a homemaker, and developed an avocation of attending Flea Markets. As she started collecting Antiques, she started setting up at Flea Markets and enjoyed seeing her friends and colleagues. She was well known in the Antique and Collectibles business. She was a regular at Todd's Flea Market in Rowley. Jean is survived by: her devoted husband of 53 years, James G. Eastland of Peabody; one daughter, Lynnda J. Bauder of Wauchula, FL; two grandchildren, Corine Sandberg Waters and Brian Erik Sandberg, both of FL; one great-granddaughter, Katherine Jean Waters of FL; three sisters, Carolyn Taubert of San Antonio, TX, Mildred Seiler of Houston, TX, and Shirley Roberts of Corpus Christi, TX, and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by a sister, Laverne Rennert. Services A Memorial Gathering will be held on Saturday, May 21, 2005 from 10:30 AM at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South with interment following at San Jose Burial Park. In addition to flowers, Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 8115 Datapoint Drive, San Antonio, TX 78229.