“ *Tia Irela, thank you accepting my family and boys as your own. You were always so kind and loving to all of us. No matter who's birthday or event, you always came with one of your kids and your presence will greatly be missed. Thank you for being there for our grandma Tita when she was alive and whether it was taking her to an appointment or just visiting with her, she enjoyed your company. I know she is rejoicing with your arrival now. We will miss you and your smile, but we will treasure your spirit and memory always. Till we see each other again, love you Tia Irela. “ I was 6 years old and I remember that summer as it was yesterday. You were headed home to San Antonio, Valerie and Adriana were telling me how amazing Sea World was and of course I wanted to go. Mom and Dad refused to let me go but as you pumped gas to leave I snuck in your van. As the evening approached we past this oil refinery that at the time I thought was a well lit castle. You told me what it really was and we were on our way. I was thrilled to see the city, and as you promised you took me to Sea World and Super Slash. We were in the lazy river for what seemed hours yet you never rushed me to go home. You showed me how delicious toast with Jelly and butter are and till this day it's one of my favorites. I will forever hold that summer in my heart and every time I pass this refinery I think about you and that amazing summer. Thank you for those beautiful memories They will be forever engraved in my heart. I love you tia, you will be greatly missed but I live with the faith that one day we shall see each other again.

“ Irela you will always hold a special place in my heart. For the last 20 years you were the only mother I had. You have been a wonderful mother in law to me and such a loving grandmother to my babies. You were a proud 'Gran' so excited to see Frankie play basketball and football, and being there for all his special moments. The last event we were able to celebrate with you was his graduation and I'm so happy you got to see him walk the stage. He will continue to share his successes with you in his own way now. Thank you for accepting me into your family and trusting me with your baby boy (I know that isn't easy for a mom). We will keep your memory alive and will celebrate you. Rest in the hands of our lord.

“ Grandma.. Sept. 18 is the day I gained a new angel. I will never forget this day, it's hard to imagine what the rest of my life will be like without seeing you, hugging or getting your kisses anymore. My heart will forever have a hole & feel empty although I know you will never let me be alone anymore. You were amazing inside & out you shed tears with me, laughs & got on me about leading a good life for myself. I'm more than blessed to have had you for so many years supporting me. You never missed a birthday, you never let a holiday go by without calling all of you family over, you never forgot to tell me “have a good day my princess I love you” every single morning before school, you were in the crowd of my graduation. You left me so many things to remember you by. I can write a book about you if I keep going on... I hope to see some sign of you soon I will always need you. I love you so much grandma enjoy your time in heaven with the angels cause you are one. You're my angel. Rest is paradise - Destany❤️

“ Turns out my Mom and Irela knew each other before Tony and Adrianna met. They were both happy to have her daughter and my Mom's grandson marry... Irela met my Mom years ago at the restaurant where she worked. My Mom was a regular customer and they became friends after that. Our conversations were always pleasant. I'm sure she will be dearly missed by her family. Rest assured God needed her now .. and yes you truly were blessed to have her as your Mom. Do know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all always. I am just a phone call away. Love you, Tia Mary
