

Irene Rose Cardoso

November 8, 1936 - January 8, 2021

Irene Rose Cardoso went to be with the Lord on January 8, 2021, at the age of 84. She was born on November 8, 1936 in San Antonio, TX. She is preceded in death by her husband, Crecencio H. Cardoso; parents, Elias and Irene Vargas; granddaughter, Erica Marie Cardoso and great-grandsons, Hudson Edward and Landry Douglas Whitley. Irene is survived by her loving children, Rosalie Knowles, Jessica M. Cardoso (Carmel Cortez), Christopher J. Cardoso (Deborah), Christina M. Nabers and Ezquiel E. Garcia; 8 grandchildren, Kira Marie Knowles, William A. Knowles (Kimberly), Jennifer Whitley (Matt), Vanessa Cardoso, Derek Nabers, Zachary Nabers (Heather), Milla E. Rodriguez and Gage J. Vidaurri; 7 great-grandchildren, Ky Knowles, Kyrie Knowles, Tristan Cardoso, Ava James Whitley, Ellie Whitley, October Averie Nabers and Camila Garza.

Irene Rose attended Fox Tech High School and shortly after graduation married her high school sweetheart Crecencio (Chris) Cardoso. They began their lives together as a military couple. Irene Rose embraced her role as a military spouse and devoted her life to supporting her family. Irene Rose was the most selfless and giving person, who lived a life filled with laughter, joy, triumphs, pain and sorrow, but through it all showered us with wisdom, life lessons and above all unconditional love. Through the years our family continued to grow giving her the additional title of grandma and great-grandma. She loved the company of her family and always had food ready just in case we dropped by. We were always greeted at the front door by a loving smile and an invitation to eat. Having a pot of beans cooking on the stovetop was a must, so that bean and cheese tacos were ready for the grandkids. Her signature dishes were meat and potatoes or conchitas and of course her "cheese enchiladas". She enjoyed reading romance novels and watching her favorite channels, Hallmark and Lifetime. Words cannot describe how much she is missed and loved, but the memories will forever be engraved in our hearts. "Forever loved-never forgotten"
