My mom is missed so much. There were many times I would call her or go by her home. I miss those times. She will be loved and cherished all my life until the good takes me home where there will be a family reunion. Love you mom

“ Mom was the sweetest mother in law I ever knew. Beautiful woman, inside and out. So very talented in stained glass, quilting and making her beautiful dolls And her macrame. Gonna miss and love her forever and a day...Happy that she's with Pop and Tricia, now...

Gonna miss my mother. She was a very good mother. We love her very much. She's going to be in heaven now with my dad Hoyt Jr. My sister Trisha Clark and my little brother William. William was 2 days old when he passed away in 1956. It's going to be a joyous time for mom. She's going to see all her brothers and sisters, aunts, uncles, her mother and father. It's hard to imagine who she will see in heaven, and most importantly she will be with the Lord. No more problems or pain.

Irene will be so missed by all whose lives she touched. I'll always remember her kindness— she never said an unkind word. She was a wonderful mother and grandmother. And she could cook and bake with the best!
