October 20, 1921 - January 13, 2015

DELGADO

Irene Cardenas Delgado was called to be with our loving Lord on January 13, 2015 in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 93. She was born on October 20, 1921 in Queretaro, Mexico to Luz Cardenas and Guadalupe Perez. She was preceded in death by her parents; her beloved husband, Juan F. Delgado; son, Juan C. Delgado, Jr.; two infant sons, Enrique and Ricardo Delgado; sister, Maria Gonzales; brothers, Roberto Cardenas, Jesus Cardenas; and grandson, Daniel Delgado. Mrs. Delgado is survived by her daughters, Martha Durner, Teresa Shook Jim, Estella Picardo Alex, Guadalupe Salazar, and Cheryl Klein James; sons, Paul, Jose, Ramon Delgado, and Cruz Delgado Brenda; sister, Celia Garza; 26 grandchildren; 36 great-grandchildren; and 6 great-great grandchildren.

She has been called the Angel of Southton Rd. because she would regularly visit the elderly and the sick by taking them pan dulce and engaging in caring conversations. She devoted her life to her family and provided the loving example of motherhood through her daily acts of kindness and her genuine ability to love. Her beautiful smile gently said "I love you" with each expression. Her ability to love, laugh, and sacrifice for others, has made our world a better place to be in. She had a deep faith in our Lord and prayed daily to the Virgin of Guadalupe. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her, and each time we think of her we will smile because she was a joy to love.
