“ My grandma was a AMAZING woman and I looked up to her she made my mother become a strong independent leader/parent . And I was so glad she got to be apart of our lives for so long ,and get to see her 5great grandchildren I love the joy of seeing her face light up every time would visit us out in country my kids and I would always want her to take a walk so grandkids can show their animal.. My mom "Roni" n sister"Naomi" would always smiles cause Grandma would get scared of my pitbull saying with her hand those bite 😊 I know my kids (Jaime 10, Jaiden 7, Nadia 6, Nautica 4,and naitele 3) will miss her so much love her but I know she watching over us And every time I will make tortillas I'll be thinking of those great memories we made threw my high school years and how she became the grandma if our street LOVE YOU FOREVER GRANDMA thank you for all you shown Me , 😘

“ There are special people who impact our lives in ways that can't ever be explained. My Tia Irene was one such soul. The impact that her spirit had on me as a child was that of a warrior. She was my protector when I was a child and up through my teen years.

The last time I saw my beautiful aunt was at my cousin's wedding. Years had past since we had seen each other, but seeing her on that occasion, was like seeing her just the day before. Our energies didn't skip a beat. I used this occasion to express to my aunt exactly how I felt about her. Her tears, in that moment, were those of joy, knowing that she had done the job that she was sent to do.

Knowing that the present moment is a Gift 🎁 , my choice is to honor my Aunt Irene as such. In the NOW. No masks needed. No required attire. No past. No future. Just NOW.

My Aunt will live on in my heart and memory as a glorious, strong warrior. I will continue to see her Alive and well, speaking and hearing perfectly. The love I have for my Aunt will forever live on in me. And I will celebrate her LIFE every time I speak about her. I will remember her when..... In all of those lovely moments that we shared.
