

Irma Vega Correa

January 11, 1950 - November 22, 2021

Irma Vega Correa, 71 of San Antonio Texas passed away on November 22, 2021 from complications due to Dementia.

She was born on January 11, 1950 in San Antonio. She was the daughter of the late Hector Vega, Sr. and Emma T Vega.

Irma attended High school at the Little Flower Catholic School and received her diploma. A few years later she married Daniel Lopez Correa and from that marriage became a mother to Monica Yvette Correa in 1975.

She went on to work for Handy Andy over 25 years until she retired from the grocery business in the late 80's. She decided to then go into the distribution field and traveled all over South Texas in the 90's handling merchandising for many grocery/retail stores. She later decided to go into business for herself and created Rainbow Vending, which she successfully managed until her diagnosis in 2016.

All her life Irma was a hard worker, an entrepreneur, and was active and helpful for the Community that she loved.

Irma loved the outdoors & spent her youth fishing and hunting deer with her father. She loved to bowl and was on many leagues for many years. She also played darts and loved to listen to music and dance. Once she became a grandmother, her focus & time was spent on loving her grandchildren. The bond they shared with her was irreplaceable.

Irma had a generous nature and was always there for her Family, Friends and neighbors. She will dearly be missed by all who loved and knew her.

Ms. Correa is survived by her only daughter, Monica Yvette Correa (Husband-Alexander Moreno); Grandchildren, Michael Alexander Moreno & Gabriela Rose Moreno. Brother, Hector Vega, Jr.

Hector, I just found out that Irma was deceased; her family was beautiful I do hope one day before I leave this planet I would love to contact her family. I hope your mother is fine and I do hope your family is safe and healthy. I tried so many times to make contact with Irm but was never able to speak with her. I looked at the pictures and knew that I had made some costly mistakes. Nevertheless, we all move on and attempt to achieve our life's goals. I am sorry that I was never able to contact you and the family. I feel deep inside me that life is in God's hands; there is so much to have shared with Irma. I will remember her always, her voice, smile, and when she would get upset with me and lots more...
