“ Our sincerest condolences to the entire family. Irma was a beautiful and kind hearted soul. I remember the good old days on Kentucky when she was so welcoming of us into her family. I especially remember going to the restaurant and enjoying the tasty caldo and carne guisada tacos that filled my belly with love. Irma we will always remember your smile but most of all the immense love you had for your family. May you be rejoicing in heaven with your Lord.

“ An amazing neighbor, friend, an entrepreneur, strong, a believer, humble, a dedicated mother, a single parent who worked so hard for her family. You leave a beautiful legacy, Irma. I will always recall you with admiration. I will never forget that infectious smile and beautiful Heart. RIP in Paradise. ❤️
