

Irma D. Rodriguez

February 21, 1940 - November 29, 2013

Irma D. Rodriguez, a beautiful wife, mom, sister, aunt and friend, passed into Eternal Life, Friday afternoon, November 29th, 2013, after a courageous battle against cancer.

Irma was born February 21, 1940, in San Antonio and died at the age of 73.

A life-long resident of San Antonio. She and her husband, Raul S., celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary on Wednesday, November 26th.

She had two sons, Raul S., II, and Mario A. She attended Fox Technical & Vocational School during her high school years. There she studied nursing assistance. Upon completion, she began working as an assistant in a local doctor's office.

Irma left the nursing career and began her greatest passion, and the joy of her life, that of being a loving wife, mom and homemaker.

Irma's keen sense of style was impeccable and she was always in fashion.

Irma was an excellent party planner and cook with many of her dishes being the demands of each family or friends' gathering.

She enjoyed being active in many social clubs and on occasions was crowned queen of the "El Tea" Social Club.

She was the daughter of Frank and Bertha Guzman McLemore. She was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Frank.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, her sister, Martha Rodriguez and brother, Richard McLemore and many nieces and nephews. She will be missed and forever remembered in a loving way.
