

Irvin A. Hellmann Jr.

May 7, 1934 - May 15, 2026

Irvin Alfred Hellmann Jr., age 92, known lovingly by many as “Curly the Breadman,” passed away peacefully at his home on May 15, 2026. He was born on May 7, 1934, in Guadalupe County, Texas, to Irvin Antonio Hellmann Sr. and Lonie Marie Clarner-Hellmann.

Irvin dedicated his life to hard work and family. As a lifelong farmer, he took great pride in working the land and living the values of honesty, perseverance, and humility. He also honorably served his country in the United States Army. Following his military service, Irvin worked for many years at Butterkrust Bakery, where he retired after a long and dedicated career.

Known for his strong work ethic and quiet strength, Irvin was a man who believed in providing for his family and helping others whenever he could. He enjoyed the simple pleasures of country life and leaves behind a legacy of kindness, integrity, and devotion.

Irvin was preceded in death by his parents, Irvin Antonio Hellmann Sr. and Lonie Marie Clarner-Hellmann, and his brother, Vernon Hellmann.

He is survived by his loving wife, Deborah Hellmann; son, Dennis Hellmann; daughter, Pamela Bone and husband Stephen Bone; other children, Teresa Skyora and husband Dennis Skyora, and Derek Cope; sister, Evelyn Tschoepe and husband Edmund Tschoepe; 11 grandchildren; 7 great-grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews; and many wonderful friends.

Pallbearers will be Gavin Bone, Reno Hellmann, Derek Cope Jr., Jacob Cope, Landon Robles, and Hudson Robles.

Irvin will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.
