

Dr. Isaac Gerard Martinez

June 14, 1966 - May 27, 2026

Dr. Isaac Gerard Martinez passed away on May 27, 2026. Isaac was born on June 14, 1966 in San Antonio, Texas to Isaac V. Martinez and Maria T. Martinez.

He grew up in San Antonio and attended St. John the Evangelist and Blessed Sacrament Catholic Schools. He was a proud alumnus of Antonian College Preparatory, which he continued to support throughout his life by volunteering at the Wild Game Dinner. He later graduated from The University of Texas at Austin and received a Ph.D. in clinical psychology from Oklahoma State University in 1996. He loved following both UT and OSU sports, especially during football season and March Madness, and jokingly decided on which shade of orange to wear based on who was enjoying the better season.

During his 27+ year career as a licensed psychologist, Isaac treated people from all walks of life, including many underprivileged patients, and taught at multiple universities, most recently Saybrook University.

Isaac was an avid outdoorsman. He enjoyed golfing, hunting in South Texas, and fishing along the Texas coast from Big Shell Beach on Padre Island to Galveston. He also liked coaching, playing flag football, and cooking, spending many evenings manning the BBQ pit or replicating his parents' recipes in the kitchen. Most of all, Isaac loved spending time with his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his sister, Cynthia. He is survived by his wife, Vanessa, his step-daughters, Julia and Diana, his son, Isaac, his sister, Sandra (Charles), his nephew Adam, and many other family members and friends. He will be missed.

“ A truly gifted mental health provider, educator, and human being. It was both an honor and a privilege to know him and to learn from him throughout my doctoral training. His wisdom, compassion, and dedication to helping others left a lasting impact on both his students and the countless individuals whose lives he touched. He will be deeply missed, but his influence and legacy will continue through all of those he mentored and inspired.
