

Isabel Orozco

June 13, 1927 - May 8, 2024

Isabel Orozco, mostly known as Chabela or Buela, was born on June 13, 1927, in Linares, Nuevo León, México, to the late Maria and Manuel Lung. Isabel was left an orphan at the age of 6 years old and was raised by her godparents. Isabel went peacefully into the arms of the Lord on Tuesday, May 8, 2024 surrounded by her beloved family by her side. She is preceded in passing by her parents as well as her sisters, Manuela Arredondo, and Ana Calvillo, her husband, Agustin F. Orozco, and her sons, Luis G. Orozco, and Arturo Orozco. She is survived by her children, Maria E. Mendez, Guadalupe Orozco, Deacon Agustin J. (JoAnn) Orozco, Maria Isabel Orozco, Lucia Orozco, and Patricia Orozco, plus 16 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Isabel was a devout Catholic who attended Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church. She was a member of the Guadalupana Society, Eucharist Minister and part of the De Colores Curisillo Movement. God and her family were the focus of her life. It came naturally to her to be a caretaker to everyone that got the opportunity to know her. Isabel could be seen praying multiple times a day, reciting rosaries, and enjoying some of her favorite verses from the Bible. Aside from being a regular churchgoer, she also enjoyed gardening. She especially loved her rose bushes. She liked to wear bright colors. Isabel enjoyed traveling. She got to visit Rome, Italy and San Juan Puerto Rico with her beloved son, Luis. She also enjoyed playing the slot machines in Kickapoo and Las Vegas. Her favorite place to go and play was Las Vegas, where she would gamble and enjoy the bright lights of the big city.

Isabel Orozco was a very loving mother and caring friend up to her final days. She will be dearly missed and never forgotten.
