“ Grandma, I’m going to miss you so very much. You were like a second mother to me and you watched over me almost as much as my real parents and I can never thank you enough for that. You helped raise me into the person I am today and I know you’re always going to be with me but I’m very happy that you’re with big grandpa now and that you can finally see the rest of your family again. Thank you for taking care of me from 0 to my teenage years. Thank you for always having a meal ready for me when I got to your house after Roger would pick me up from school. Thank you for watching wrestling with me. Thank you for being outside with me when I would go on the swings. Thank you for taking care of me when I was sick for 10 days. Thank you for always making me feel like everything was going to be ok when my parents were splitting up. Thank you for making your house feel like a safe place for me all the time. I’ll never ever forget you grandma or your cooking because you were the best and I’ll always love you. You were the best great grandma a great grandson could ever have or hope to have.

Your great grandson Sammy
