

Ishmael V. Solis

February 13, 1938 - December 6, 2011

Ishmael V. Solis, 73, of San Antonio, TX, affectionately known as "Tiny", passed away December 6, 2011, his family at his side, in the beautiful home he built for his family. He was born on Feb 13, 1938, in San Antonio, TX to Ismael and Hortencia Solis who preceded him in death. He is survived by Leticia, his high school sweetheart and wife of 51 years. He graduated from Brackenridge high school in 1956 and lived his entire life in San Antonio, TX. However, he did venture to the state of Kansas to work for Eastern airlines. He returned to San Antonio and began his life-long passion as a masonry contractor together with his father and brother Richard. He was most proud of his work on many of the buildings and structures of Hemisphere Plaza for the 1968 Hemisphere. He is survived by his brothers Richard and Orlando Solis of San Antonio, TX. son Mark Sherry of San Marcos, TX; daughter Yvette Longoria Richard of Dallas, TX; son David Gracie of Austin, TX; daughter Carla Solis Timothy Deal of Portland, OR. He is also survived by his grandchildren, Kai Webster; Julian Solis; Abigail Longoria; Gregorio Solis; David Solis; Paloma Deal; and great-grandson Oliver Shedd.

Visitation will begin on Friday, December 9, 2011 at 5:00 p.m. with a rosary to be recited at 7:30 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels NORTH at IH 10 and Cherry Ridge.
