“ Ivy and her family were my family’s next door neighbor for many years. We all moved in to the neighborhood when they were still building so we were original owners. Ivy always had a smile on her face and always offered coffee and a Coke when we visited her. She worked hard. I saw her on a ladder many times painting the outside of her home or fixing something! She was a comfort to me knowing she still lived next door to my sister and then later her daughter and son. I will miss her smile and her spirit. ❤️
