“ There are no words that can fully express the unimaginable pain at the loss of a child and my heart aches for your family in this difficult time. Jace was taken from this world far too soon. His kindness and bright personality will be dearly missed. I feel blessed that he was in my class and that I had the opportunity to get to know him, however too briefly.

With deepest sympathy, Anne Schnabel - his Astronomy teacher.

“ I remember the first time Hank and I met you, Jace—a little shy but very sweet. We were privileged to be a part of your life and we soon learned to love you. You have grown into a handsome, fine young man and I am so saddened at your passing. Many people loved you—your little sis Eva was no exception! You will be forever missed. May you rest in eternal peace.

“ I never do good at this. I see the fields of pain and sorrow of your family, and I am sad with them.

You're a good boy. You have honored your parents, your family. That was not enough, though. You were drawn to something bigger, to selflessly enlist in the Marine Corps, to serve and honor an entire nation.

Jace is your name. Jace Andrew Mendoza. Yeah, think I'll remember that name for the rest of my life. Anyone who was able to call you "friend", is indeed, lucky.

I am trying to learn, but don't know exactly how this works.... If you will put in a good word for me to God, maybe wrap me in protection, I am grateful.

Semper Fidelis, little man.
