“ Dear Family of Jack,

I knew Jack at TLC. My memory of Jack focuses on the freshman year in the dorm where he appeared to me to be a thinker with poise. Though I had no class with Jack that I can remember, I could tell he was a good guy. (I was busy playing basketball and studying.)

Can I try to make you laugh with something I think he would think funny? I note that had been a paint contractor. When I faced the tasks of painting houses after college, I didn't like to or want to paint. Later, after i painted several houses--both interiors and exteriors--I got to hating to paint--just joking. I really got to enjoy painting and still do. Did you expect me to say I learned to like it before I wrote I hated it?

Condolences to you. Losing someone close has its hurt yet is a part of God's plan for Jack and for all of us.

Did Jack own an Exxon station at the outskirts or Seguin in '79?

“ Jack was a long time friend his parents knew our parents he worked for my father & brother for many many years a great painter & friend. He will be missed by all who knew him, he had a great look on life. Not only a great loving husband & father but a great friend. I know he is in heaven with my father & brother joking about who caught the most fish they had so many great times together. Even at a time of such unexpected sadness, love & memories endure and they will stay with you forever.
