“ Daddy and Jack were best friends until the end! I know they are all playing cards right now and laughing, joking and carrying on!

I have many memories as a young child of our families at reunions, domino parties and other family events. Mike, Pat and family as you continue your lives without him, always know that he is right there telling us all to keep moving, take one day at a time and keep on plugging on!

It's with much honor that I am a part of this family and that you all know how much I love you!
