“ Brad, I was so taken back by your eulogy - I just wanted to wrap my arms around your words. I know you are mentally exhausted throughout the planning of your goodbye tribute to your Dad while still trying to focus on being strong and sending him off to the best place ~ to the arms of our God~ the purity of Heaven and a place where noone is in pain, all is young again and glowing with a renewed life. When I got home from the service and celebration afterwards at his fav place- Well that's when the tears really flowed. I had met so many who were close to your Dad and saw a glimpse of a man I never had the opportunity to really know or sit down and talk to~ but my family did. Your Dad was good to my family- He was the boss of my Aunt back in the 70's- he was good to my sister- (Alcapulco trip where her little sis got a t-shirt ;-))... Billie Jo who my sister adored..(a strong memory as a 15 yr old that sticks in my mind)... and then there's our Dad's who had the same outlook on life- He was the 2nd person to sign the book at my Dad's service... My Mom said she remembers- he was dressed to the T- and one of the first to arrive. Lastly, there is you- You have remained a friend, "a big brother" throughout all these years... you helped me when nobody was there to help me when the hail took out my house... Thus, The Mikulenka family means so much to me- a history of two families that met way back when and remained friends. Your Eulogy words- " My Dad wasn't perfect- but that didnt matter because ~ he was my Dad" - ❤️. Prayers to you Brad, and all your family. I've been to many services but I have to say- This one truly lived up to "A Celebration Of Life". May your sweet Dad rest in peace- He's up there with all of the best.
