

Jack D. Phelps

September 6, 1920 - November 3, 2013

Phelps

Jack D. Phelps beloved father, grandfather, great-grandfather, friend and World War II Veteran flew his last mission to heaven on November 3, 2013 at the age of 93. There he joined his beloved wife, Frances Kimmey Phelps, to whom he was married 69 years. He was born in Winters, Texas on September 6, 1920. During World War II Jack was a bombardier/navigator on a B-25 and flew 39 missions over Europe.

Jack spent most of his life in sales retiring from Wallace Sterling in 1990 in Florida. He and Frances moved to San Antonio in 1995 to be closer to family.

He is survived by his daughter, Karen Phelps Elliott, her husband J. Steve Elliott of San Antonio and son, Jack D. Phelps, Jr. and his wife Janice Presley Phelps of Atlanta, Georgia. He will be missed by numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, their families and friends. He and Frances were life-long and very active Baptists and they attended Oak Ridge Baptist Church in San Antonio. They also were avid Spurs fans seeing games in person or watching on television.

Visitation will be at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North from 6:00 - 8:00 pm on Thursday November 7, 2013. Services will be held at Oak Ridge Baptist Church, 10915 Vance Jackson, San Antonio, Texas 78230 on Friday, November 8, 2013 at 11:00 am. Burial will be held at Ft. Sam Houston on Tuesday, November 12, 2013 at 11:15 am. In lieu of flowers and for those desiring, donation may be made in Jack's name to Odyssey Hospice, 4440 S. Piedras Dr. Suite 125, San Antonio, Texas 78228 and/or Oak Ridge Baptist Church.