“ I am just seeing this obituary 7 years after Coach Summey's passing. He was my baseball coach when I was 10 and 11 years old back in 1971. I grew up without a Dad but I always felt like Coach Summey loved all of his players as if we were his kids. I really appreciate what Coach Summey did for us kids. He was a good man and I pray for him everyday. Now I will pray everyday that he rest in peace. Thank you Coach Summey

“ Chief Summey, when a homicide detective lieutenant, worked the case regarding the murder of my brother, Charles "Bud" Williams in 1983. Chief Summey was compassionate as well as extremely professional. He gave comfort to our family and is remembered for his kindness.
