Jacqueline Jackie Agnes Harkreader

Feb. 11, 1926 - March 25, 2013

Jackie Harkreader, beloved wife and mother of 3 sons, left this world to join her Lord early Monday morning, March 25, at the age of 87. A woman of strong will, wonderful creativity, boundless love of family and friends, teacher extraordinaire, and strong Christian faith, she now joins her husband Bob and her son Wayne Lee as well as a sister and 3 brothers. She is survived by 2 sons, Robert and James, 3 grandchildren-Stacy, Tracy, and Bobby, as well as 4 great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. After receiving her degree from Trinity University, Jackie pursued her love of teaching young children from kindergarten at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church to various elementary schools- Briscoe, Huppertz, and Woodlawn Hills. She had also worked for Frost Bank, Stanley, and Red Carpet over the years. Jackie was also very active in church activities and organizations while attending Good Shepherd, St. John's, and Cross of Victory Lutheran Churches. She and family later joined Shepherd King Lutheran where the congregation found her to be very outgoing and personable. A remarkably accomplished woman, Jackie will be truly missed by family and all her friends.
