

Jacklyn Cheyenne Wyatt

August 27, 1958 - January 21, 2026

Jacklyn Cheyenne Wyatt (Helms) peacefully passed away in her home on January 21, 2026 in San Antonio, Texas, at the age of 67.

Jacklyn C. Wyatt was born on August 27, 1958, to parents Johnnie Edward Helms and Peggy Joyce Helms in Houston, Texas. In 1977 she graduated from Mc Arthur High School in San Antonio, Texas. Shortly following married John Wyatt, on May 30th of 1977 now nearing their 50th wedding anniversary. In life Jackie was a home maker, spent time raising her children and supporting their extracurricular activities, as well helping family, friends and neighbors while living in Gonzales, Texas. She also enjoyed building and racing mud trucks, as well as spending countless hours in the kitchen, gardening, river trips with Lone Star 4 Wheelers and casinos. In 1999 the family relocated back to San Antonio, Texas establishing the JW Motorsports better known as the Muddrags of San Antonio. Throughout the past 26 years she has given her heart and soul building many relationships through customers, friends and mudracing family; as well as many hours and labor of contributing to make the Muddrags a success.

In her leisure time she enjoyed cruise ships, attending any and all sporting events for her grandsons, and more casino trips; while winning a huge jackpot that she was extremely proud of. She loved spending many hours on the phone with family and friends, as well as spending time with them. Jackie will always be remember as a woman who loved hard, spoke her mind, and loved her friends and family.

Jackie Wyatt is proceeded in passing by both her parents Johnnie & Peggy Helms as well as her sister Wendy Cleveland. Jackie is survived by her beloved husband John Wyatt; her daughters, Janice Wyatt and Kayla Wyatt; grandsons, Christopher (Fatboy) Camarillo and Caleb (Bubba) Camarillo; sister, Robyn Purswell (Carl); nephews, Dusty Cleveland and Thomas Cleveland; mother in law, Barbara Koricanek ; special friends, Kathy Shelton and LeAnn Dacy.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Muddrags of San Antonio Muddrags or a charity of your choice in Jacklyn's honor.
