

Jacob Tyler Eskew

February 26, 2002 - April 16, 2017

On Sunday, April 16, 2017, our sweet baby boy, Jacob Tyler Eskew, found peace with the Lord and joined his heavenly family.

He was a scholar with an amazing intellect, only rivaled by his enormous personality, sense of humor and contagious smile. His passion for life was felt through his warm hugs, which were always available and given freely.

Jacob had a wondrous, diverse mind that explored celestial events, stop motion Lego photography, open ice hockey hits, playing golf, and competing in video games with his brother, Nick and many friends. Jacob also had a soft side. He loved nature, animals and people. Although full of intellectual diversity, Jacob didn't practice such in his diet. He had a few favorites, such as, bacon, waffles, bacon, pizza, bacon, steak, bacon, Chick-fil-A, and bacon. Jacob is survived by his Mom, Robyn, Dad, Eric, big brother, Nick, grandparents, Gary and Rosemary Eskew, along with extensive hockey, school, and golf friends from both Texas and Colorado.

Your condolence flowers are much appreciated, or if you so choose donations contributions may be made in Jacob's name memory to St. Jude Children's Hospital ~ st.jude.org.

“ I’m thinking of Jacob often nowadays. I still remember his smile. I wish he was here so I could update him on life recently. RIP

“ I’m Christa Pegram and It has been a year and a half now, I still think of sweet Jacob everyday. He’s always in my prayers and thoughts, I remember when we would always play tag together on the play ground in the 5th grade and how him and I would always partner up to trick everybody to think that he was the tagged but in stead I was. One day him and I were in the classroom in Mrs. Philpot’s and we were sitting next to each other and he noticed that I was down that day, he asked me what was wrong and I explained to him that my cat Henry had passed away just yesterday and he gave me the biggest hug after I told him and told corny dad jokes until I cried from laughter. He is one of the most memorable people I know and will always be my best friend. “May God Bless You Jacob”

“ I can't believe it's been almost a year. I keep getting little memory flashbacks of the good times. It still seems surreal to me that he's gone. Just this morning my friend was talking about how the boys had to wear tuxedos for choir and it made me think of picture day when we were younger. Many kids were dressed up all nice but Jacob went all out. I can't remember if it was a tux or a suit that he was wearing but everyone was calling it the wrong thing as he made sure to correct everyone. I started telling this story out loud and then it hit me. I had forgotten how much I had been missing him. I miss texting him, sending him funny videos, and him brightening my day. Even though we no longer lived close to each other, he still found ways to brighten my day and I will never forget that. RIP Jacob, I will never forget. 💖

“ My name is Taylor Wieland and I went to elementary school with Jacob. We used to be really close friends, and we would pick acorns off of the trees at recess and have acorn fights. He was one of the only boys who included me when they were all playing football or tag, and always encouraged me to join. He never failed to make me laugh, and i will miss him so much, I know he is in a better place.

“ My name is Reiley and I knew Jacob in elementary school and part of middle school. In elementary school I sat with him at lunch and he always made me laugh. I remember one time at lunch it was a Friday and we had gotten ice cream and he had his book, Eragon. I remember thinking how smart he was because of his big book. I also remember in 7th grade he was in my reading class. I remember sitting next to him and how he always shared his huge stash of gum. He was always willing to share.

“ I remember fair oaks ranch elementary school, when i first met Jacob. He was the sweetest, most loving and kind person. Everyday he made me laugh and smile, he sat with us at lunch and always made our day. He had amazing goals for the future, he inspired us all. We would talk constantly. Even after he moved away, we would talk occasionally and he didn't seem to have changed. Now finding out that this amazing kid is gone breaks my heart. He will forever be in our lives and memories. Rest in peace Jacob.

“ My name is Jett Condit, Jacob was my first friend in middle school. Right away me and Jacob hit it off, him and I talked about going pro in hockey and in the NBA. He was the happiest and most exhilarating kid known to man! Everyday he would greet me with a smile and a high five it was at that moment I knew he would be my long time friend. I hope he is up in heaven with god looking over his family. I love and miss you Jacob.

“ My name is John Bryce Hillcoat, and I was a close and trusted friend of Jacob's, we had many classes together and so much in common. Jacob or as I sometimes called him, slick, was an extraordinary smart student, not only with book smarts, but you could tell right off the bat he had an extremely high I.Q. Which made him all the more likable. It has always been hard for me to really connect with someone the way I did with Jacob. We always used to mess around and pull pranks in our 7TH grade study hall with Mrs. Robinson. One of the funniest memories of Jacob in that class would have to of been the gum incident. It started with him chewing gum, and giving it out to the people around him. Since we were not "allowed" to be chewing gum in class Mrs. Robinson told him to spit it out and give her the whole pack of gum. As he did so she had asked if he had any more gum on him, that is when he turned toward her with a grin from ear to ear and said "No mam, not on me.." so then Mrs. Robinson said "What about in your backpack?".. the grin got even bigger as he started to pull out packet after packet of gum, until his desk had filled up. The class became hysterical, we were so caught up in laughter we did not even notice that the lunch bell had rung. That is all the entire class talked about for the many weeks to come.

Your son was an outstanding student and one of my best friends, he may be gone but will NOT be forgotten. I give my deepest regards and my most humble condolences.

“ *Hey, I'm Christa Pegram and I was a very close friend of Jacob's he was so nice and don't even know how long it's been since I met him but I remember sitting with him at lunch and making jokes about how everyone doesn't like school and how we wished summer would last forever like in Teen Beach Movie and we would always talk about our day and then go off topic and talk about something random like avocados or chocolate, I'm very sorry for your loss and we're all praying for Jacob, we will see him again. “ Jake - your smile was contagious, your love of just "tasting" bourbon entertaining. Thanks for not scoring every time you shot at me Tuesday nights and always being the first one to tell me good game even though it was only pick up. Your determination to hit the biggest guy on the opposing team will be only one of many ways you will continue to inspire us every day. Miss you and will see you again.

“ Dear Nick, Robyn, and Eric,
Words cannot express the depth of sorrow that you are experiencing and we send our sympathy and prayers. We remember Jacob as kind, and always with words of encouragement, opening doors for others, among the many ways he showed selfless love of other people. Truly a beautiful soul. He will be missed greatly. We will pray for your family and all whose lives he touched. Matthew : 5-4

“ Jacob, where do I begin. You were such a very smart, loving, funny, always smiling, having fun kiddo and always a joy to be around. You were always dancing or singing with your dad and brother to the 90s music that us older ones used to listen to. You were always smiling and loved hanging with your cousins. One of the best and most adorable memories I have of you, was when you showed Slayton, your tiny little car you got for Christmas that you could drive with your phone and Slayton was in awe. He didnt know how you were doing it and we all were just laughing. You are and will always be loved. Even tho we didnt really see each other much you were always thought of and asked about, along with your brother, mother and father. I miss you and wish I was there for you more. Watch over your family.
