

Jacob G. Trevino

September 19, 1978 - August 15, 2022

Jacob G. Trevino, age 43, of San Antonio, was called home to be with the Lord on Monday, August 15, 2022, in San Antonio. Jacob was born on September 19, 1978, in San Antonio to Pedro Villarreal Trevino, Jr. and Sylvia (Gonzalez) Vasquez.

In 1996, Jacob met the love of his life and best friend, Julie Roblez, in San Antonio. While the couple devoted their lives to each other, they finally married on May 2, 2011. Together they shared nearly 30 years of raising a family and living a lifetime of memories.

Those who remember Jacob best will remember his constant sayings like “take it easy” and “Cool-cool”, or the gentle spirited man with a big heart who loved to be the peacemaker in any situation. Jacob was a dedicated employee who spent the last 17 years in the warehouse at Takata. Although Jacob was a private person, he had more friends than even he realized. His love of music, fanatical collection of baseball, basketball, and football cards, and love of cars was evident in all that Jacob did. He was a dedicated husband, father, brother, and friend who will be missed by all who knew him.

Jacob is survived by his wife, Julie; children, Leonard Barrientes and Emrie Lynn Trevino; parents, Pete Trevino, and wife Sandra, and Sylvia Vasquez, and husband Ricardo “Rick”; sister, Sylvia Ashe, and husband Bryan; brothers, Pete Gonzalez Trevino III, and wife Mercy, and Ricky Vasquez; and by a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and very special friends.
