

Jaime L. Salenga

December 4, 1931 - October 25, 2019

Jaime L. Salenga passed away on October 25, 2019 in San Antonio, Texas. He was born on December 4, 1931 in the Phillipines, to Nicasio and Pasquala Salenga. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Josefina Mariano Salenga; sister, Coring Visperas; brothers, Leonardo Salenga, Cesar Salenga, Manny Salenga; and granddaughter, Daniella Salenga. He is survived by his daughters, Raquel Salenga, Ruby Riley (Alex); sons, Ramon Salenga, Rene Salenga (Christine); brother, Napoleon Salenga; grandson, Nick Salenga. Jaime worked as a civil engineer for the American, Malaysian, and Canadian governments. While working, he lived in Vietnam, Iran, and Malaysia. He immigrated to the USA in 1979 to give his children a better life and live the American dream. He taught his children a strong work ethic and to honor family. He and Penny (wife) were attentive parents and were proud of their children and grandchildren. He worked for Manco Prestress for many years and retired at the age of 75. He was a faithful Catholic and served in many capacities such as volunteering and singing for the church. Jaime was an eloquent storyteller sharing details of his travels and experiences. Family members will miss his stories greatly.

“ Mr. Salenga was always such a courteous and nice person, I enjoyed meeting him on the occasions of family in which I was involved. He was a good Christian Catholic as well. I never realized he sang, and would have enjoyed hearing him. I feel sure he is in the choirs of Heaven now!Victoria Reilly, Alex's Mom..we love Ruby!
