

James F. Alford

December 8, 1926 - December 2, 2007

James F. Alford passed away December 2, 2007 at the age of 80. He was born in Houston, TX to Raphe and Anna Alford who preceded him in death. He was a 1949 graduate of Trinity University. James worked for International Harvester as an accountant for over 25 years then went to work for John Deere. He is survived by his wife of 55 years Bertha M. Alford; daughter and son-in-law, Nancy Kilbane-Carr and William B. Carr; grandchildren, Brandon F. Kilbane, Daniel J. Kilbane, Maura M. Kilbane; and great grandson, Landon Kilbane.

Tribute Wall

SJ

“ Dear Aunt Bertha, Nancy and family, We are thinking of you as you spend these next few days preparing to send Uncle James home. He had a wonderful smile and was always such a joy to be around when we visited in South Texas. Share some wonderful stories

Stuart & Janis Jesse - December 05, 2007 at 12:00 AM