

James Nunnely "Jim" Bixby

September 17, 1957 - November 3, 2014

BIXBY

James Nunnely "Jim" Bixby, passed away November 3, 2014 after battling prostate cancer. He was born in San Antonio, Texas on September 17, 1957 to Raymond and Jean Nunnely Bixby who precede him in death. Following graduation from Alamo Heights High School, Jim worked as a mechanic on aircraft, then motorcycles. He loved the latter and became a competitive motocross racer. Survived by his daughter Amanda, Amanda's mother, Christine Como; and brother, Raymond Richard Bixby. Sincere thanks to the University Hospital and the departments of Internal Medicine, Urology, Hematology/Oncology, and Palliative Care at the University of Texas Health Science Center UTHSC-San Antonio. We are also most grateful for the care provided by the Cancer Treatment and Research Center, Vitas Hospice, and Jim's close friends at the end.

Visitation will begin at 10:00 AM on Thursday, November 13 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South followed by services at 11:00 AM. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the University Hospital UTHSC-SA or to Vitas Hospice.
