

James Carl Dodson

May 1, 1920 - September 28, 2016

James Carl Dodson, 96, Leon Valley, passed away peacefully in his home Wednesday, September 28, 2016, surrounded by his sons James and Carlton and the compassionate care providers from Gentiva Hospice.

James lived a full life, and was a loving husband, parent, provider, and a true American patriot. With his witty sense of humor, his charm, compassion, he always tried his best to help and please others.

Born to Susie and George Dodson, a lifelong resident of San Antonio, and a WW2 Purple Heart, Bronze Star Recipient, serving his tour of duty with the Army Air Corps 615th Squadron, 401st B-17 Bomber Group. After the war James returned to San Antonio and in 1954 married "Jan", both true to their vows and now forever reunited. Following his graduation from St. Mary's University, James worked for the federal government KAFB as a senior accountant where he retired in 1985.

James beloved wife Emma Janette "Jan", who preceded him in death, May 4, 2012 is survived by his son, James Stephen Dodson, his sister Ruth Davila, step daughter Jeanette Janacek and step son Carlton Weaver, eight grandchildren, and multiple great grand children.

The family will receive friends 3-5pm Sunday, October 2nd at Mission Park

Funeral Chapels North. A memorial service will be held 12 noon on Monday, October 3rd at Mission Burial Park North Small Mausoleum Chapel with burial to follow on premise.
