“ Jim was a great friend and Christian brother. I'll always have good memories of our times together in Children's worship with him hosting the puppet stories at church. We taught classes together and served as fellow elders at MacArthur Park Church of Christ. I appreciated his quiet manner and good advice. Jim designed our home in San Antonio. God be with you Barbara, Steve, Rae Ann, Carl and family. Love, James Taylor

“ Jimmy and I were classmates at Luling Texas and were members of that famous graduating Class of 1959. He was a great person, a loving family man and a dedicated husband and father. I will miss seeing Jimmy at Luling City Market when the Class of 59 gathers again for fellowship and conversation about the past and "good old times".

“ Dr. Dye, there aren't enough words to describe the most compassionate, caring and giving man you were. You always made us feel special on Secretary's Day with a special something for us and I actually still have many of them. Every time my dad was at Downtown Baptist you would visit with me and my mom and gave us comfort in prayer and healing for my dad. You will be truly missed.

“ Dr James Dye a beautiful man. My mother Annie C Campos worked for Dr. Dye as his Administrative assistant for some 5 years plus at The Alamo Community College District until her passing. Dr Dye and I spoke frequently and he always encouraged me to serve the Lord. Today I am an ordained Deacon at Kingsborough Ridge Baptist Church as a result of his encouragement. May God Bless All of the Dye family during this time. Find peace in our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. Jesus Ray Campos.

“ Jim was one of the kindest men I have ever known. He excelled as the administrator for Oak Hills Church and he is sorely missed. Selfishly I mourn his presence in this world but also rejoice knowing he is at home with our Lord. Prayers for peace and comfort for all of his family whom he loved so much.

“ Jimmy was a classmate of my sister, but we all palled around. Especially at the Dairy Queen. I will always remember the day we nearly were hit by a semi truck when leaving there Jimmy made sure we were ok. He was that kind of guy.

“ Jim Dye was one of the first neighbors we met shortly after moving into the area. Actually, my son and he met early on as my shy son rode his bike around the neighborhood, checking things out and finding out who lived where and well basically the ins-and-outs of the neighborhood. As such, Jim Dye basically knew all the preliminary stuff about our family weeks before we actually met Jim Dye. As such, our family developed an unbreakable bond with Jim. He and Barbara were like surrogate grandparents to our kids. Jim lovingly nicknamed my son the "Major" of our neighborhood. A wonderful memory to have of this amazingly loving, Christian man. I am deeply blessed and appreciative to have met you and been touched by your kind heart.

“ Rest in peace, Doc. I truly enjoyed working with you at Oak Hills. You always treated those of us in the Facilities Department with courtesy, and respect. You will be remembered fondly by many. This Earth has lost one of its brightest stars, but the heavens have most certainly gained. Until we meet again.....

“ Back in '59 I was just beginning high school in Luling. Jimmy was older and wiser but he made me feel so at home and comfortable. His sense of humor of contagious and I will forever remember his kindness. May he rest in peace and free of pain.

“ Dr Dye has been an inspiration for scholarly achievement since I was 10. He was a kind and caring man and helped me with college acceptance. I am so very glad that I was able to reconnect with him this past year and talk about what an impact he has had on my professional goals. I am 3 years away from my doctorate and it all began when we met 39 years ago and he planted that seed in my mind, and I will never forget that. Johnny

“ Jim was a great blessing to my son and me when I lived and managed Christian Village Apartments . He and Barbara were so faithful to attend all of our monthly birthday celebrations. They share beautiful homemade cards and both had a noticeable love for all who attended. Jim walked with me as we secured my son's Native American registration. I will always remember his acts of service and care. What a legacy this dear man of God has left.

I will always remember Jimmy's wit and positive attitude when we were in high school and college. He found humor in every situation. He probably has Saint Peter laughing right now.

We had so much fun on our game day playing Fast Track and Jokers and Pegs! I never saw Jim without a smile on his face, greeting everyone!! He and Carroll were truly "best friends." It warms my heart to think that they are together again.

I have known Jim Dye since he and I were 10 yrs. old. He lived one block from me, down the street. We were friends from that time on. He loved talking to everyone, and was smiling and putting everyone at ease. He will sure be missed. RIP. Douglas Hamilton
